

Hancock County Historical Society

- Post Office Box 3356 - Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi 39521 -

Scanned
1-14-21
to Dubs/Excel

OBITUARY RECORD

Whalon, Joseph P. - May 25, ~~1935~~ 1926

On Tuesday, May 25, <sup>1926</sup> ~~1935~~, at 6:36 o'clock A. M., Joseph P. Whalon, beloved husband of Lillian Fayard and beloved father of Mrs. L. Crespo and grandfather of Florence Crespo, aged 50 years, a native of this city [New Orleans] died. The remains will be forwarded from the residence of his sister-in-law, Mrs. F. Crespo of 319 South Galvez Street on this Wednesday, May 25, 1935, to Bay St. Louis, Miss., for interment, leaving the L. & N. station at 11 o'clock A. M. Services in Our Lady of the Gulf Church, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Source: unknown newspaper

2012 Map Location ID Ref

SECTION: N 3

ROW #: 04

PLOT(S): 03

© 2008 - 2018

Hancock County Historical Society

All rights reserved

WHALON—On Tuesday, May 25, 1926, at 8:55 a. m., JOSEPH P. WHALON, beloved husband of Lillian Sayard, a native of this city.

The funeral will take place from the residence of his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Crespo, 310 S. Galvez St.

Due notice of which will be given.

On 10/20/2021, Margaret Sarrat of HCHS found a death notice for Joseph P. Whalon that states he died on Tuesday, May 25, 1926. This was published in the New Orleans States Item on 5/25/1926. Previously the HCHS Obituary for Mr. Whalon had is DOD incorrectly posted as 5/25/1935.