

*Professor Joseph Hemmersbach, age 80

0/00/1878 – 4/21/1968

*Note that his headstone is misspelled as "Hammersbach".

Burial Location at St. Mary Cemetery is S2-08-01

Obit published in Sea Coast Echo on 4/25/1968

Hammersbach
Professor Joseph Hemmersbach, 80, well-known organist and music teacher, died at St. Bernard's Hospital in St. Louis, where he had been a patient for about two weeks.
A native of Rommerath, Germany, he had resided in St. Louis for 60 years. He served as organist at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church for 20 years.
Survivors are his son, Joseph Hemmersbach, New Orleans; two daughters, Miss Marie Hemmersbach, Bay St. Louis, and Mrs. Henry Kiezan, New Orleans, and three grandchildren.
Services were Monday afternoon from Riemann's Family-Whitfield Funeral Home. Requiem mass at Our Lady of the Gulf Church, celebrated by Mgr. James J. Hannon, pastor. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery with Brothers of the Good Heart as pallbearers.