

Ellis Paul St. Amant
12/01/1887 - 10/15/1969

Ellis St. Amant

Ellis Paul St. Amant, 81, of 102 McDonald Lane, died at 6:15 a.m., Wednesday, October 15, at Hancock General Hospital.

A retired warehouseman for Standard Supply Wholesale Hardware Co., New Orleans, he was a native of New Orleans and a resident of Bay St. Louis for 10 years. A member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, he served during the Mexican War.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Beulah Mequet St. Amant, Bay St. Louis; two step sons, Herbert F. Young, New Orleans, and Melvin Young, Bay St. Louis; a step daughter, Mrs. Joyce Taylor, New Orleans; nine grandchildren; two brothers, Milton St. Amant, Pontiac, Mich., and Claude St. Amant, Waveland; and two sisters, Mrs. Inez Guidroz, Jeanerette, La., and Mrs. Ruth Rivera, Waveland.

Funeral services were held Thursday from Riemanns' Fahy-Whitfield Funeral Home followed by religious rites in Our Lady of the Gulf Church. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Burial location at SMC:
S6-10-02

Published in SCE on 10/23/1969